

Garnet Day & Norman Bluff United in Church Ceremony

MR. AND MRS. NORMAN BLUFF JR.
Tell Vows in WALTERIA Church . . .

The Walteria Assembly of God Church was the setting for one of the loveliest weddings of the season recently when Miss Garnet Day, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gaylord Day, 24433 Macdon street and Mr. Norman Bluff Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Bluff, 24821 Oak street were united in marriage.

The Sunday afternoon service was attended by nearly 250 relatives and friends of the popular couple.

Escorted to the altar by her father, the bride wore traditional white in a flowered chiffon. Her full-length veil was caught up in a crown of seed pearls and she carried a Colonial bouquet of white gladioli and lilies of the valley.

Mrs. C. L. Murray, matron of honor, chose blue taffeta for her gown and her Colonial bouquet was rose-colored sweet peas.

C. L. Murray was best man and ushers Joseph Mitola, cousin of the bridegroom and Fred Seaward Jr., cousin of the bride.

Preceding the bridal party was little Elaine Cahill attired in a full-length pink gown as she carried a basket of petals.

Billie June Ferguson sang "I Love You Truly" and "Because" just before the bridal party appeared at the altar.

Rev. A. Rainwater, pastor, read the marriage lines as the bride and bridegroom stepped beneath an archway beautifully decorated with shasta daisies further enhanced the beauty of the church.

A reception followed with the bride cutting the large decorated cake. Nelda Jean Shook presided at the guest book and close friends of the bride were in charge of receiving the guests.

Lenete Preble Becomes Bride of C. Wayne Collier Saturday

To the strains of Lohengrin's Wedding March Miss Lillian Lenete Preble, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Preble of 1706 W. 265th street approached the altar of the Wayside Chapel Saturday evening where she exchanged vows with C. Wayne Collier of Wilmington.

The bride was lovely in white slipper satin. Her full length gown cut entrain with a lace yoke in tight bodice was attached to a full skirt with a bustle effect. A coronet of orange blossoms held her fingertip veil of tulle in place and she carried white gladioli and lilies of the valley surrounding a detachable orchid. She was given in marriage by her father.

Miss Marilyn McIntire, maid of honor, wore orchid taffeta and carried orchid gladioli and lilies of the valley.

The groom, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wayne Collier of Wilmington, was attended by Robert Waggoner as best man, and Ralph Cogan and Donald Koester served as ushers.

Preceding the entrance of the bridal party Don Bruton sang "I Love You Truly" and "Because." Little Ellen Preble, sister of the bride, was flower girl.

Catholic Ladies Complete Plans For Card Party

Mrs. Martha Moffitt has been named chairman for this evening's Catholic ladies weekly card party.

Mrs. Moffitt's assistants include Mesdames Mosler, Clayton, Chevine, Cochran, Wilken, Young, Lowellen, Dietlin, Ames, Boos, Hoffman, Briggs, McBreen and Greiving.

Everyone is invited. The customary games will be played and delicious refreshments will be served at the close of play. The first door prize will be awarded at 8 o'clock.

Job's Daughters, Guardian Council, At San Pedro Meet

Torrance was well represented at the Southern California Guardian Council Association meeting held Wednesday evening at San Pedro YMCA. Arline Etenier presided at the session.

A delicious turkey dinner was served to more than 200 guests including members of 26 Bethels of International Order of Job's Daughters.

Included from Torrance were Gladys Evans, guardian; Walter Evans, associate guardian; Ruby Clere, guardian secretary; Grace Ashlev, guardian treasurer; Estill Clere, Council guest; Marlene Quaglin, honored queen; Joann Sanstrom and Joy Curdner, princesses; Pat Clere, girl. Gowned in a full length yellow dress she carried a basket of pink rose buds.

Rev. Morris Singer, church pastor, read the service before 135 guests from Lomita, Long Beach, El Monte, Belmont Shore and Hawthorne.

Tall candelabra lighted the chancel and baskets of white gladioli completed the decorations.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Preble wore aqua with frosted white accessories. Pink accessories with her grey costume were worn by the bridegroom's mother.

A reception followed at the Preble home with Mrs. Jake Eichman as hostess assisted by Mrs. Carl Eichman and Mrs. Albert Close. Mrs. Jake Eichman also presided at the guest book.

A three-tiered cake was cut by the bride and served with other refreshments.

The bride wore a dusty pink suit with off-white accessories for traveling when with her husband she departed for a Grand Canyon honeymoon.

Mrs. Collier is a graduate of Narbonne high school, and has been employed by the California bank at Wilmington. Her husband is a graduate of Banning high school and Compton college. He now is attending California Polytechnic in San Luis Obispo, where the newlyweds will reside.

Mrs. Schott's Home Is Setting For Evening Card Party

Mrs. Howard E. Schott was a gracious hostess to bridge club members and guests when she entertained at home Tuesday evening.

Attractively arranged garden flowers used throughout the rooms created a pretty background for the tables.

Club guests were Mesdames Edward Rhone and Jackson Moore. Winners at contract were Mrs. M. N. Felker and Mrs. Rhone. At the close of play delicious refreshments were served.

KATHRYNE BUFFINGTON FEATURES SOLOVOX NUMBERS AT DELIGHTFUL PIANO RECITAL

On June 24, 25 and 26 Kathryn Buffington, pianist-teacher, presented students in duo-piano and solo numbers at her studio home, 1484 Post avenue. Appreciative and enthusiastic audiences greeted the young pianists, who ranged in ages from eight to twenty years.

Soloists John Blackmon, baritone, Nadine Nickel, mezzo-soprano and Glen Hall, tenor, and Bradford Tozier, violinist were warmly received by the audience and their artistry commended. Kathryn Buffington introduced the organ-like Solovox to the audience by having students play solovox and piano duos, thereby adding a great deal of interest to the program. The following students played the programs: Lenore Sexton, Gary Hakanson, Mary Margaret Cunningham, Richard Malone, Carol Hamilton, Judy Yeltema, Marilyn Zelinski, Jimmie Nickel, Beverly Ordway, Mickey Van Deventer, Emily Burchfield, Carol Jacobs, Elisa Mata, Beverly Luster, Eldridge Walker, Patricia Blackmon, Donald Brautigan, Ann Olson, Geraldine Faren, and Bill Morgan.
